Company employees are expected to use data transfer responsibly. The data package is for work-related use to ensure connectivity in locations where Wi-Fi is not available. Avoid using leisure applications which require high levels of data transfer (for example Spotify).

You will receive SMS, if you pass the saldo limit of 60 € per month.

If telephone expenses exceed saldo limit of 60 € per month, the excess will be deducted from the employee's salary if it can be clearly demonstrated that it is not a work-related need e.g. vacation trip.

You can choose from the options below which works best for you:

Option 1

- I would like to transfer my current mobile subscription for Company ownership
- I would like to have a new mobile subscription for company use

Taxation benefit added to salary (20 €). I will use my company mobile subscription also for private use.

Option 2

- I would like to have a separate mobile subscription for company use

No taxation benefit added to salary. I will use my own mobile subscription for private use.

Exception

The company mobile subscription is not available for unpaid leave more than 3 months (e.g. parental or study leave). This restriction does not apply to sick leaves.

Additional Information

Assign the ownership of the mobile subscription to the employee

Mobile subscription can be handed over to the employee and in some cases directly for the company.
